PURPOSE/BACKGROUND:

This amendment to AMR's existing franchise will update AMR's service obligations and simplify the monitoring of AMR's performance, including the following: (1) adjusting response-time standards, which AMR must meet on at least 90% of its calls; (2) eliminating waivers for calls on which AMR fails to meet response-time standards; (3) adjusting penalties to which AMR is subject for failing to meet response-time standards; and (4) establishing a mileage-based standard for replacing ambulances.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the City Council Approve this Amendment to Franchise Agreement for Ambulance Services.
